

ETHICAL USES OF INFORMATION IN AN ONLINE WORLD

Program

8:00 am Registration/Continental Breakfast

8:30 am Using Technology to Achieve Learning Objectives

SEPCHE Faculty Technology Showcase: Poster/Electronic Demonstration Session:

9:30 am Welcome

Sister Maureen McGarrity, Ph.D.

Vice President Academic Affairs, Holy Family University

Keynote Address

Introduced by Dr. Denise Wilbur, Vice President, Academic Affairs, Gwynedd-Mercy College

Conquering Copyright Confusion: Implication for Teaching and Learning with Digital Media

Dr. Renee Hobbs

Temple University

10:40 am Breakout Sessions

A. Copyright for Academia

Dru Zuretti, Copyright Clearance Center

B. Copyright Cases in the Academic Arena: Applications for the Classroom

Kristine Butler, Esq., Volpe and Koenig, PC

C. Partners in Learning: Faculty, Librarians, and Information Literacy

Larissa Gordon, Arcadia University

Ruby Remley & Anne Schwelm, Cabrini College

Mary Jo Larkin, SSJ, Diane Arnold, Chestnut Hill College

D. New Media Technologies: Wikis, E-Portfolios, Adobe Captivate

Personality Pedagogy: Wikis in and beyond the Classroom

Marianne Miserandino, Arcadia University

E-Portfolios: A New Wave in Learning and Assessment

Dennis Gallagher, Arcadia University

Use of Adobe Captivate® to produce “engagement” audio/visual segments as topic introductions in an online Human Ecology course.

Carl Pratt, Immaculata University

E. Best Practices in Technology: Impact on Teaching and Learning

Using an Online Community to Share “Best Practices” Among Faculty

Eric Malm, Marilyn Johnson, Michelle Filling, Caitlin

O'Donnell, Cabrini College

Technology as a Flexible, Agile Infrastructure for Learning and Teaching

Sister Marie Cooper, Immaculata University

Microbiology Online, Good, Better, Best.

Jean Shingle, Immaculata University

12:00 LUNCH

1:00 pm Keynote Address

Introduced by Dr. Gerard O'Sullivan, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Neumann College

Editing Frankenstein: The Ethics of Re-production

Dr. Charles Robinson

Professor of English, University of Delaware

2:00 pm Panel Discussion

Moderator: Dr. Ken Soprano, Vice President
Academic Affairs, Chestnut Hill College

Ethical Uses of Information in an Online World

Dr. Renee Hobbs

Dr. Charles Robinson

Dru Zuretti

Kristine Butler, Esq,